SHAREHOLDERS NEED ONLY MAKE AN ELECTION IF THEY WISH TO RECEIVE THE CASH ALTERNATIVE. IF YOU DO NOT ELECT THE CASH ALTERNATIVE, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE ELECTED THE CAPITALISATION SHARE AWARD.

You are not required to pay for the ordinary shares to which you are entitled in terms of the capitalisation share award. Shareholders may make an election to receive the cash dividend alternative in lieu of receiving the capitalisation share award, in respect of all or part of their holding of ordinary shares ('shareholding') in TRU held on the record date. Shareholders are responsible for informing themselves about and observing any applicable legal and regulatory requirements in their relevant jurisdictions. To the extent that the distribution of this Circular and/or the receipt of the capitalisation share award in jurisdictions other than South Africa might be prohibited or otherwise restricted by legal or regulatory requirements, and/or the failure to comply with any of those legal or regulatory requirements might constitute a violation of the laws or regulatory requirements of such jurisdictions, shareholders will not be entitled to receive the capitalisation share award, directly or indirectly, in those jurisdictions, and shall be deemed to elect the cash dividend alternative.

If you wish to receive the cash dividend alternative, please note the following action that is required to be taken by you:

CIRCULAR TO SHAREHOLDERS

1 INTRODUCTION AND RATIONALE

In an announcement released on SENS on Thursday, 18 August 2016, notice was given that the board of directors of TRU had declared a dividend in favour of the holders of ordinary shares in TRU for the period ended 26 June 2016 to be settled by way of the award of fully paid TRU ordinary capitalisation shares of 0.015 cent each from the company's share premium account, and to the extent necessary the company's retained income, to ordinary shareholders recorded in the TRU register on the record date, being Friday, 16 September 2016 ('the capitalisation share award'). As an alternative, shareholders will be entitled, in respect of all or part of their shareholding, to elect to receive a gross cash dividend of 182 cents per ordinary share from the company's retained income, which cash dividend will be paid only to those shareholders who elect to receive the cash dividend, in respect of all or part of their shareholding, on or before 12:00 on Friday, 16 September 2016 ('the cash dividend alternative').

Shareholders not electing the cash dividend alternative in respect of all or part of their shareholding will, by default, be deemed to have elected to receive the capitalisation share award and will consequently be issued with fully paid ordinary TRU shares in terms of the capitalisation share award.

The dividend provides shareholders with capitalisation shares or, alternatively, an option of cash. TRU will benefit from the transaction by way of an increase in the amount of shareholders' funds and cash available to support continued growth of the company and the businesses conducted by its subsidiaries, and will enable the Group's debt to equity ratio to be suitably managed.

2 THE CAPITALISATION SHARE AWARD

2.1 Terms of the capitalisation share award

Subject to the terms contained in this Circular and the accompanying Forms (attached), the number of new ordinary TRU shares to which ordinary shareholders participating (or deemed to be participating) in the capitalisation share award will become entitled will be determined in the ratio that 182 cents multiplied by a factor of 1.05 bears to the volume-weighted average price ('VWAP') of the TRU ordinary shares on the JSE during the three-day trading period ending on Monday, 5 September 2016. An announcement will be published on Tuesday, 6 September 2016 advising of this ratio indicating how many TRU capitalisation shares ordinary shareholders will be entitled to per 100 TRU ordinary shares held on the record date.

2.2 Fractions

Trading in the Strate environment does not permit fractions of shares. Accordingly, where an ordinary shareholder's entitlement to new ordinary TRU shares results in a fraction of a new ordinary share, such fraction will be rounded down to the nearest whole number in accordance with the JSE Listings Requirements, and a cash payment will be made for the fraction. Fractions of less than 1 000 South African cents due to any one shareholder of the company's shares held in certificated form will not be paid, unless otherwise requested in writing, but will be aggregated and donated to a charity to be nominated by the directors. The weighted average traded price of TRU shares on Wednesday, 14 September 2016 less 10% will be used to calculate the cash value of such fraction. The company will release an announcement on Thursday, 15 September 2016 regarding the cash value so determined.

2.3 Tax implications

The cash dividend alternative will be paid out of the retained income of the company to a maximum Rand value of R793 852 747. A net cash dividend of 154.7 cents per ordinary share will apply to shareholders liable for the South African 15% dividend withholding tax and 182 cents per ordinary share for shareholders exempt from the dividend withholding tax. The new ordinary shares will, pursuant to the capitalisation share award, be issued as a capitalisation of a maximum amount of R833 545 384 from the share premium account together with the retained income (to the extent necessary) of the company. The capitalisation share award will entail the transfer to shareholders of an amount that constitutes shares in the company, and such amount will accordingly not comprise a dividend for South African tax purposes. For employees of the TRU group of companies who hold TRU shares in the form of restricted equity instruments pursuant to Group share incentive schemes, the value of the capitalisation share award will constitute remuneration and will be subject to employees' tax. In the finalisation announcement TRU will disclose the price and ratio relating to such capitalisation. The issued ordinary share capital of TRU as at 18 August 2016 is 436 182 828 ordinary shares with a par value of 0.015 cent each. The company's income tax reference number is 9875/145/71/7.

The capitalisation share award and the cash dividend alternative may have different tax implications for both resident and non-resident shareholders, as well as employees of the TRU group of companies who are TRU shareholders by virtue of their participation in Group share incentive schemes. Shareholders should not rely on the contents of this paragraph as regards the tax implications of the corporate action, and are therefore encouraged to consult with their professional advisers should they be in any doubt as to the tax implications and the appropriate action to take.

3 PAYMENT OF THE CASH DIVIDEND ALTERNATIVE, POSTING OF SHARE CERTIFICATES AND UPDATING/ CREDITING OF CSDP ACCOUNTS

To the extent elected by ordinary shareholders, the cash dividend alternative is declared and will be payable in South African currency (Rand [ZAR]). Where applicable, cash dividends in respect of certificated ordinary shares will be transferred electronically to ordinary shareholders' bank accounts on the payment date at the risk of those shareholders. Ordinary shareholders who hold dematerialised shares will have their accounts at their CSDP or broker credited/updated electronically on Monday, 19 September 2016. In accordance with the company's memorandum of incorporation:

- 3.1 the cash dividend alternative will only be paid by electronic funds transfer and no cheque payments will be made. Accordingly, shareholders who have not yet provided their bank account details should do so to the company's transfer secretaries; and
- 3.2 the directors have determined that gross cash dividend alternative amounts to less than 1 000 South African cents, due to any one shareholder of the company's shares held in certificated form, will not be paid, unless otherwise requested in writing, but the net amount thereof will be aggregated with other such net amounts and donated to a charity to be nominated by the directors.

Where applicable, share certificates will be dispatched to certificated shareholders by ordinary post at the risk of such shareholders on or shortly after Monday, 19 September 2016 to their last known and/or registered addresses or in accordance with the written instructions given to the transfer secretaries. Dematerialised shareholders' CSDP/broker accounts will be updated electronically on Monday, 19 September 2016.

4 LISTING OF NEW ORDINARY SHARES

Application will be made to the JSE to list the maximum possible number of TRU ordinary shares that could be issued in terms of the capitalisation share award, with effect from the commencement of business on Wednesday, 14 September 2016. The JSE will adjust the number of new ordinary shares listed, to reflect the actual number of ordinary shares issued, on or about Wednesday, 21 September 2016. A shareholder may not refuse, abandon or transfer his/her right to receive new ordinary shares allotted to him/her pursuant to the capitalisation share award, nor may such right be traded on the JSE.

5 EXCHANGE CONTROL

This paragraph provides guidance with respect to the Exchange Control Regulations of South Africa ('Exchange Control') to shareholders who are either non-residents or emigrants from the common monetary area, comprising South Africa, Namibia and the Kingdoms of Lesotho and Swaziland. Such guidance, in terms of Exchange Control, is as follows:

5.1 In the case of certificated shareholders

5.1.1 Non-residents

Share certificates will be issued with a 'non-resident' endorsement. Dividend payments, which are freely transferable from South Africa, will be sent to the last known or registered address of the shareholder concerned by ordinary post (at the risk of that shareholder) or in accordance with the written instructions given to the transfer secretaries.

5.1.2 Emigrants

The election of the cash dividend alternative must be made through the bank that has been appointed as the emigrant's authorised dealer in foreign exchange controlling his/her blocked assets, in terms of which dividend payments derived from distributable reserves may be regarded as transferable and credited to the emigrant's non-resident Rand account. Share certificates, which will be issued with a 'non-resident' endorsement, and dividend payments, based on ordinary shares controlled in terms of Exchange Control, will similarly be forwarded to the authorised dealer controlling the blocked assets of the emigrant.

5.2 In the case of dematerialised shareholders

All aspects relating to Exchange Control will be managed by the CSDP or broker of the shareholder, as follows:

5.2.1 Non-residents

Ordinary shares issued will be credited to their CSDP or broker accounts and a 'non-resident' annotation will appear in the CSDP or broker register. Dividend payments will be credited directly to the bank accounts nominated for such non-residents by their CSDP or broker.

5.2.2 Emigrants

The election of the cash dividend alternative must be made through the authorised dealer in foreign exchange controlling the blocked assets of the emigrant. Ordinary shares issued, based on ordinary shares controlled in terms of Exchange Control, will be credited to the blocked share accounts at the CSDP or broker controlling the blocked assets of the emigrant and an 'emigrant' annotation will appear in the CSDP or broker register. Dividend payments derived from distributable reserves, based on ordinary shares controlled in terms of Exchange Control, will be credited to the CSDP or broker accounts of such emigrants and their CSDP or broker will arrange for the same to be credited directly to the shareholder's non-resident Rand account held by and to the order of that shareholder's authorised dealer.
